The President’s Corner

As I sit here, creating The President’s Corner message for March, it’s raining turning into snow. As I’m watching the flakes of snow falling, I’m thinking about how blessed my family and I are to be inside a nice, warm house.

I’m also thinking about the many homeless people who are outside on this cold, rainy and snowy evening. It brings up the memory of the 2019 UMW Annual Celebration. At this event, there was a wonderful choir called Matthew’s Voices, entirely made up of homeless men and women.

The speaker for that night was Maurice Young, Homeless Advocate.

Mr. Young chose to be homeless himself – “I needed to see the world through the eyes of the homeless people.” Through his eyes, we heard of the problems of homelessness and how to begin to recognize some of the barriers.

The hands-on mission opportunity that day was to assemble Blessing Bags. We were to keep that bag in our car and give it to someone in need when we encounter a homeless person.

Our ongoing mission projects are many: Oatmeal for Fletcher Place Food Pantry. UMW asks members to donate oatmeal every month to serve those in need. Mustard Seed is an organization that helps the homeless by providing furniture and basic items once they are in homes. Dessert Extravaganza every February is a tasty way to raise money that is used for our mission projects. Soup’s On at Fletcher Place is a mission to provide food for the homeless downtown.

I am so proud to be a UMW member!

UMW Reading Program

"Your Windows to the World"

St Marks Church Library

The National UMW Reading Program met Monday, Feb. 24 and discussed our books from the Education for Mission Section. We welcomed Kathy Deakyne as she was curious about a book group where everyone reads a different book. It works and everyone attending learns from the other readers. Our March meeting will be the last Monday of the month on March 30 meeting from 7-8:30 with books selected from the Leadership section (Books in this group will have a green tag on the spine and are on the movable book shelf in the church's library.)

Even if you have not read a book, feel free to join us and add your thoughts.

Email or call Susan Salter with questions. 317.848.1194 or sbf5salter@att.net

Please submit any changes to Laura McCloughan at laura.mccloughan@gmail.com

Social Action and UMW

“Welcoming the Stranger: Religious Diversity & Interfaith Relations is the topic for the 2020 winter quarter of St. Marks’ Social Justice Committee. Please join our book discussion on Sunday, March 22 at 9:40 as Mary Hayes leads the conversation on the book, “Beyond Tolerance” by Gustav Niebuhr. Jesus told us we are to love one another, not just tolerate. Let’s see how Mr. Niebuhr approaches this. Books are available for $5 on the mission table. If you haven’t read the book join the discussion anyway...I’m sure we have all tried to “love” someone when “tolerate” was the best we could muster.

March Mission:

We are continuing to collect Individually wrapped Candy and Bath and Body Works soaps and lotions. This will be for the students at the Indiana United Methodist Children’s Home. Feel free to drop off a container in one of the RED TOTES outside Door 2.

TOUR of IUMCH

The UMW and anyone else who would like to come along will be making a visit to the Indiana United Methodist Children's Home in Lebanon on Saturday, April 25th. We will carpool from church. We will plan to be there by 10:00. This is the day they have their annual Auxiliary Program, anyone can join the Auxiliary for a minimum donation of $5.00. They provide some of the extra things needed by the children such as flu inoculations, orthodontia needs, transportation for home visits, educational supplies, trips to Kings

Island, recreational equipment and furnishings for the Teaching family homes. Lunch will be served with the kids joining us. After lunch we will be able to tour the homes and the campus. It will be a great way to meet some of the youth and learn more about the Home. More information will follow in the April newsletter, including registration for lunch (there will be a small charge for lunch). Put it on your calendar. For more information contact: Kathi Hall at: khal7401@sbcglobal.net

DESSERT EXTRAVAGANZA!

A big thanks to all who baked, sold or bought desserts. We earned $730 dollars for missions. A special thank you to Sandy Melin for coordinating this event.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

“What’s Going On In The United Methodist Church?”

You are invited to a congregational forum on Sunday March 8th at 3 pm to learn more about the upcoming General Conference in May. The various proposals for moving forward as a denomination will be discussed. Some of these proposals call for a separation into more than one denomination. Come be part of this information session.

Nell Mason (second from left)

The women of St Marks UMW would like to acknowledge the passing of a great lady - Nell Mason. Nell was heavily involved with UMW. She was an interest group leader; a volunteer for Fletcher place breakfast; she went on a mission trip to the reservation in South Dakota, a tireless Trinkets and Treasures worker and the keeper of St Marks World Famous Hot Chocolate recipe to name just a few of her attributes. If there was a UMW event happening, you could be assured that Nell would be there to assist. She could easily outwork women who were 30 years her junior. She will be greatly missed by her sister Doris Jean Carlow, good friend Ada Hoffmaster and all the women of St Marks UMW.

Prayer Calendar

Some of us may remember the children’s Sunday school song “Jesus Wants me for a Sunbeam.” The simple verse reminds us of two basic Christian affirmations: First, that God is light, the source of all truth, goodness and love: and secondly, that followers of Jesus are expected to convey and be the light of God in the world. The identification of God with light is a frequent biblical theme from Genesis 1 – when God commanded “Let there be light”- to Revelation 22-God as illuminator in the new creation. Jesus refers to himself as “the light of the world” in John 8:12, and t disciples as such in Matthew 5:15, the passage in which the life of faith is likened to a candle shining in the darkness. The 2020 Prayer Calendar explores light as a theological and personal reality – the experience of God’s light shining on and through us. It uses words and images to bear witness to God’s light and to dramatize the various ways in which holy light brightens our individual and corporate dark places. The prayers here help us to shine a light on situations and sorrows in our world that need hope and healing, challenging us to expose abuse and evil that leave many people in shadows of despair and fear.
