

St Marks UMW Update-Nov 2021

“St Mark’s United Methodist Women”
monthly gatherings take place September through May. They are held the second Tuesday each month.

Morning meetings: 9-11 am.

Evening meetings: 7-9 pm.

President’s Message

“Over the River and Through the Wood.”

This song was originally a Thanksgiving poem written by Lydia Maria Child. It celebrates her childhood memories of visiting her grandmother’s house.

This song always reminds me of visiting my beloved grandmother in upstate New York for the Thanksgiving holiday. We would go every year to attend a family reunion. Cousins, aunts, uncles would gather and it would be a big celebration. (It was also my twin sister, Susan and my birthday – sometimes on Thanksgiving Day. An extra bonus!)

Thoughts of pumpkin pie, pecan pie and turkey with all the trimmings dance in my head and make my mouth water. (Not to mention birthday cake.) My grandmother was the best cook!

In addition to food, lots of laughter, hugs, music and reconnecting with extended family to make new memories, it also makes me stop and remember what I am thankful for. God in my life, family, good health, friends.

Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth writes :
“Be thankful. God has commanded it – for our good and for his glory. God’s command to be thankful is the invitation of a lifetime – the opportunity to draw near to Him any moment of the day.”

Wishing you many reasons to be thankful, receive God’s invitation and have lots of pumpkin pie.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Steff

Pledges for 2021

This is the time of year we focus on our contributions to UMW, but it can be confusing.

#1. This is the end of the pledge calendar year 2021. If you have not completed your pledge, or are interested in contributing for this year, please submit it at the next meeting.

#2. At the Nov 9th meeting, we will have pledge forms for calendar year 2022 to be completed at our Pledge Service. (Also attached to this newsletter.) This helps us determine our potential donation capabilities to service organizations next year.

#3. At Nov. 9th meeting, please bring your World Thank Offering, coins, bills, or checks - all are acceptable. This money is collected through UMW for global missions.

If you have questions, please contact me.

Social Action/ Mission Education & Interpretation

The Pray Journey for Ascent 121 is an opportunity for you to discover more about advocacy and recovery services for teen survivors of trafficking in Indiana. As the "crossroads of America" and a city that hosts major sporting events and conventions, Indianapolis and Indiana have a growing need for awareness, action, and prayer.

If you would like to join us on the Prayer Journey on November 12, 2021 at 12:15p.m. please contact Donna Schwartz at dehschwartz@gmail.com. After contacting me you must register online at www.ascent121.org. We will be driving to various sites to pray and learn more about the journey of a teen that needs help. We stay in our cars and the journey takes 2 to 2.5 hours to complete.

Afghan Neighbors- There is additional information available about their needs. Half of the guests are under 18. Of that number 40% are under age 10.

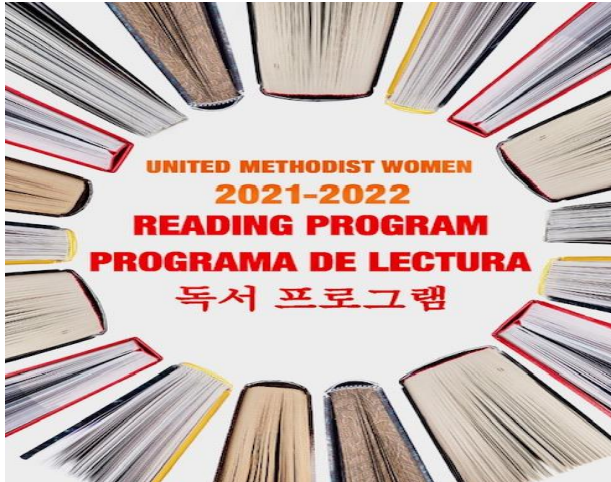

Prayer is part of our mission!

Social Action Coordinator- Donna Schwartz.

United Methodist Women “Your Window to the World” National Reading Program

National Reading Program Update

Discussions on books from each of the five reading categories for 2021 have been completed. Participants started the year on Zoom and were able to finish with in person meetings.

The Reading Program will begin meeting again next year with the first book discussion on Monday, January 24, 2022. The first category is books from the Education for Mission category. Contact Kathy Lentz at kathylentz@gmail.com for more information.

UMW November Thankfulness

We have been given some beautiful fall days filled with gorgeous colors. Our gratefulness continues because the Fall UMW Gatherings have been encouraging, interesting, and filled with loving fellowship and many inspirational moments. The Arts and Crafts Marketplace was exciting and provided shopping opportunities with amazing products, delicious food options, and wonderful crafted items from our vendors. Once again delicious pecans will be arriving and can be purchased for baking as well as for gifts to share with family and friends. The various monthly Interest Groups are engaging and progressing in a variety of Book Discussions, Spiritual Growth, Cultural Insights and Foundations, and Caring Outreach. Eight Caring & Sharing Baskets were created and delivered in October and several more are already being requested to be assembled at our November Gathering. Thank you very much for the requested items that are being generously supplied to help construct and design some special expressions of “Thinking of You”. Come join us on Tuesday, November 9th at 9:00 AM or 7:00 PM in Cornerstone Commons. Bring a friend and share in St. Mark’s

UMW INTEREST GROUPS

Our upcoming meeting on Tuesday, Nov 9th at 9:00 AM or 7:00 PM, will start in Cornerstone Commons, for announcements, sharing of light foods and chatting. We will then proceed to the Chapel for our Pledge and World Thank Offering Service. We will proceed to our Interest Groups! We are looking forward to seeing you!

MORNING GROUPS

SPIRITUAL GROWTH: The UMW Spiritual Studies group will use Daryl Stephens book: Bearing Witness in the Kin-dom. Facilitator: Mary Ann Moman

BOOKWORMS A book discussion group that reads both fiction and non-fiction. The books may or may not be related to Christianity, but we will often ask if the material points us toward redemption, reconciliation, and grace.

The following books will be discussed by the Bookworms for the 2021-2022 year.

November The Beantown Girls by Jane Healey

January The Bookwoman of Troublesome Creek by Michele Richardson

February The Chilbury Ladies Choir by Jennifer Ryan

2021 Arts and Crafts Marketplace

The St. Mark's UMW invites you to its 2021 Arts and Crafts Market Place to be held on Saturday, November 6, 2021 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. All crafts and art work will be home-made either by area artisans or by members of St. Marks UMW. Refreshments will be available at the Candy Cane Café as well as the bake sale table. Profits made by the UMW support missions.

Vendors who wish to rent a table for the Marketplace may contact Gail Lee at 317 650-5352 to receive a registration form. Vendors may rent either one or two tables. Each table is $35.00.

St. Mark's Crafters may also donate handcrafted items to the UMW craft table. Popular items in the past have included matching knit scarves and hats, aprons, ornaments, American Girl doll clothes and jewelry.

Calling all bakers and candy makers! Please consider donating your favorite homemade baked goods or candies for the upcoming Arts and Crafts Marketplace bake sale table. Items can be left in the church Fellowship Hall on Friday, Nov. 5th from 9 AM to noon and from 5 PM to 7 PM. Enter through door #2. Please label items and note if they contain nuts. Items should be individually wrapped or in small amounts (e.g. 6 pretzel rods, 6 cookies, etc.). Decoratively wrapped treats for the Christmas holidays are especially appreciated. Thank you!

See you at the UMW craft fair this Saturday, November 6th from 9-3.

Thanks to all of the volunteers for the Candy Cane Cafe, Bake Sale, UMW craft table, publicity, set up, tear down and hosting.

With gratitude,

Steff Mabe, Ann Baker, Joann Burnett, Marilyn Roberts, Kathy Hall, Ada Hoffmaster, Peggy Nicolai and Gail Lee

These are gift card envelopes, 24 available.

Cards will be available for purchase at the Arts & Crafts Marketplace this year. These are samples of more than 10 different hand made cards and items to be sold on November 6th. Quantities are limited, and there will be no additional sales this year.

Faith Talks are monthly conversations with United Methodist Women hosted by Jennifer R Farmer, Spotlight PR. Each conversation explores themes and resources that empower us to put faith, hope and love into action.

Prayer Calendar

The “social distancing” required by the COVID-19 pandemic of 2020 challenged faith communities and even families to find ways for members to be together while apart. It was an extreme experience of uncertainties and separations that life often holds in relation to loved ones and friends and life itself. Church groups understandably turned to technology to achieve virtual worship and study of oneness—of unity and kinship—that faith in Jesus Christ promotes.

Prayer is a steady means of experiencing the unity—the togetherness—of the church as the body of Christ in an imperfect, struggling world. It needs no sanctuary and no technology, although it was a central focus of Christian solidarity as the coronavirus health crisis unfolded. World Christian leaders responded to the declaration of the pandemic by urging believers to join in the Lord’s Prayer at stipulated times, each praying in their own language. Prayer as a symbol of faith and supplication also unifies families and groups in times of grief, pain and fear.

Prayer represents relationships within the “kin-dom” of God—the family of love and compassion created by the grace of God in Jesus Christ. Prayer is both relationships with God and among people with our great and wonderful diversity.

The 2021 Prayer Calendar highlights the value and necessity of love-centered relationships that withstand all separation and adversity. It celebrates lives devoted to God’s mission and to projects that are witness to our togetherness in Christ, even in times of physical distance. It invites us to pray as one people responsive to God’s call to relationships of caring, connecting and healing in a world of uncertainty—uncertain in all but the love of God. Prayer is a pathway to this sense of unity.
